

Hawthorne

Theater & Lounge

COVID-19 VENUE POLICY UPDATE

We take the health of our staff and guests extremely seriously and due to the increase of infection rates of the COVID-19 Delta Variant, we have introduced additional protocols for everyone attending our venue.

All staff, bands and patrons will need to show proof of full vaccination (card or photo of card) or a negative COVID-19 test provided by a medical facility within 72 hours from the time of entry to the venue AND wear a face covering in order to attend a concert. Rapid tests will NOT be accepted. Proof of negative test from a medical facility MUST have your name on it and match your ID.

Thank you for your understanding. If you have any questions, please visit our FAQ page. We hope that these measures are temporary and watch for any updates on this website and on our social media pages. If you have any questions, please email gm@hawthornetheatre.com.

If you feel like you can't adhere to these new guidelines, you can contact support@cascadetickets.com for any refund requests.

Events

SILVERSTEIN, with Can't Swim and The Plot In You *Moved to Roseland Theater

NOV
15
MON

8pm | $30

Doors 7pm | All Ages | Bar w/ ID

Buy Tickets

TINY MOVING PARTS, with Belmont, Capstan and All Hype

NOV
16
MON

8pm | $30

Doors 7pm | All Ages | Bar w/ ID

Buy Tickets

HOT MULLIGAN, with Prince Daddy & The Hyena, Sincere Engineer, Super American

NOV
17
MON

8pm | $30

Doors 7pm | All Ages | Bar w/ ID

Buy Tickets

FROZEN SOUL + SANGUISUGABOGG, with Vomit Forth, Inoculation and Coffin Rot

NOV
18
MON

8pm | $30

Doors 7pm | All Ages | Bar w/ ID

Buy Tickets

CITIZEN, with Drug Church, Glitterer and Floating Room

NOV
19
MON

8pm | $30

Doors 7pm | All Ages | Bar w/ ID

Buy Tickets

Hawthorne Lounge

Join us at the Hawthorne Theatre Lounge, the 21+ annex adjoining the Hawthorne Theatre. The Lounge has live music from local bands and national acts, tasty bar snacks, and a rotating menu of handcrafted cocktails. The Lounge is the perfect place on Hawthorne to grab a drink and relax while discovering your favorite new band.

Is your band interested in playing the Lounge? Check out our booking page for more information.

About

Subscribe

Over the course of its nearly 100 year history, the Hawthorne Masonic Building, which holds the Hawthorne Theatre, has donned many different hats, each no less interesting than the last. From its humble beginnings in the early 1920s as the Eastside's central meeting place for Masons, to its more recent foray into live music venue, the Hawthorne Masonic Building has become a Portland institution in and of itself.

Forced from their previous meeting place by the offensive odor of a nearby stable, the Masons of Sunnyside Lodge #163 scrambled to find a more suitable site for their meetings in late 1917. By fall 1919 ground had been broken at the buildings now iconic SE Hawthorne & 39th Avenue location, but it wouldn't be until 1922 that the famous brick building would stand newly completed. For the next 70 years, the Hawthorne Masonic building was a home for the Sunnyside Freemasons until membership began to decrease in the 1970s and the Sunnyside #163 Masons merged with a neighboring Masonic Lodge and officially moved buildings in 1996. To the Freemasons of 100 years ago, the design and construction of a Lodge was an all-important matter as the Lodge represented the Mason themselves. The iconography of the Masons is still visible today in the columns near the entrance. Twin Pillars are one of the oldest and most widely-recognized Masonic symbols, and are a historical reference to the pillars Jachin and Boz, constructed for King Solomon's temple in 832 BCE.

The past 20 years have brought untold growth and change to the space that for over 70 years served just a single purpose. The Masonic Building has played host to a multitude of venues over the last two decades, including two pubs-The Blarney Stone Pub in the late 90's and Conan's Pub in the early 2000's, The Arista Ballroom and Benny's Comedy Club, The Lucky Strike Restaurant, an art gallery, and a record shop, Chaos Existence. Though the Hawthorne Masonic Building's infancy found its halls filled with secretive meetings and the sound of tight-lipped greetings, the building's past 20 years have transformed it into a beacon of the Portland artistic community. In 2005, The Hawthorne Theatre and the Hawthorne Theatre Lounge officially opened their doors and became part of this buildings rich historic tapestry.

The present day Hawthorne Theatre is one of the few places left in an ever-changing Portland to see all-ages shows, and hosts everything from metal shows to dance nights, from comedians to art shows, and everything in between. The size of the Theatre is a big draw for up-and-coming acts on the edge of breaking out, as well as legacy acts that enjoy playing a more intimate venue for die-hard fans. The interior of the Theatre holds a large stage, an underage section toward the front and a 21+ section in the back with a bar, and a large balcony that provides excellent views of the stage.

The grandeur of 100 years ago is most noticeable in the Lounge, which features lush purple & gold wallpaper, floor to ceiling windows draped in velvet curtains, and Masonic imagery visible on the wall behind the bar. The lounge is a 21 and over space that hosts local bands, up-and-coming acts, burlesque shows, and spoken word nights.

The contrast between contemporary musical acts playing in a building steeped in history is part of what makes this venue so unique. In a city that, in the last few years, has been plagued by the demolition of old buildings for the construction of high priced luxury flats, the Hawthorne feels distinctly Old Portland.

Menu

NOW SERVING ATLAS PIZZA BY THE SLICE!

Cheese ($3.50)

Pepperoni ($4.00)

Meat special ($4.50)

Veggie special ($4.50)

Vegan ($4.50)

Garlic knots ($1 each or 6 for $5)

Style Guide

Century Gothic: h1, p

Bodoni: h2

background

nav bar

logo, h1, h2, buttons

Hawthorne

Theater & Lounge

COVID-19 VENUE POLICY UPDATE

We take the health of our staff and guests extremely seriously and due to the increase of infection rates of the COVID-19 Delta Variant, we have introduced additional protocols for everyone attending our venue.

All staff, bands and patrons will need to show proof of full vaccination (card or photo of card) or a negative COVID-19 test provided by a medical facility within 72 hours from the time of entry to the venue AND wear a face covering in order to attend a concert. Rapid tests will NOT be accepted. Proof of negative test from a medical facility MUST have your name on it and match your ID.

Thank you for your understanding. If you have any questions, please visit our FAQ page. We hope that these measures are temporary and watch for any updates on this website and on our social media pages. If you have any questions, please email gm@hawthornetheatre.com.

If you feel like you can't adhere to these new guidelines, you can contact support@cascadetickets.com for any refund requests.

Events

SILVERSTEIN, with Can't Swim and The Plot In You *Moved to Roseland Theater

15

MON

8pm | $30

Doors 7pm | All Ages | Bar w/ ID

Buy Tickets

TINY MOVING PARTS, with Belmont, Capstan and All Hype

16

MON

8pm | $30

Doors 7pm | All Ages | Bar w/ ID

Buy Tickets

HOT MULLIGAN, with Prince Daddy & The Hyena, Sincere Engineer, Super American

17

MON

8pm | $30

Doors 7pm | All Ages | Bar w/ ID

Buy Tickets

FROZEN SOUL + SANGUISUGABOGG, with Vomit Forth, Inoculation and Coffin Rot

18

MON

8pm | $30

Doors 7pm | All Ages | Bar w/ ID

Buy Tickets

CITIZEN, with Drug Church, Glitterer and Floating Room

19

MON

8pm | $30

Doors 7pm | All Ages | Bar w/ ID

Buy Tickets

Hawthorne Lounge

Join us at the Hawthorne Theatre Lounge, the 21+ annex adjoining the Hawthorne Theatre. The Lounge has live music from local bands and national acts, tasty bar snacks, and a rotating menu of handcrafted cocktails. The Lounge is the perfect place on Hawthorne to grab a drink and relax while discovering your favorite new band.

Is your band interested in playing the Lounge? Check out our booking page for more information.

About

Email Address

Subscribe

Over the course of its nearly 100 year history, the Hawthorne Masonic Building, which holds the Hawthorne Theatre, has donned many different hats, each no less interesting than the last. From its humble beginnings in the early 1920s as the Eastside's central meeting place for Masons, to its more recent foray into live music venue, the Hawthorne Masonic Building has become a Portland institution in and of itself.

Forced from their previous meeting place by the offensive odor of a nearby stable, the Masons of Sunnyside Lodge #163 scrambled to find a more suitable site for their meetings in late 1917. By fall 1919 ground had been broken at the buildings now iconic SE Hawthorne & 39th Avenue location, but it wouldn't be until 1922 that the famous brick building would stand newly completed. For the next 70 years, the Hawthorne Masonic building was a home for the Sunnyside Freemasons until membership began to decrease in the 1970s and the Sunnyside #163 Masons merged with a neighboring Masonic Lodge and officially moved buildings in 1996. To the Freemasons of 100 years ago, the design and construction of a Lodge was an all-important matter as the Lodge represented the Mason themselves. The iconography of the Masons is still visible today in the columns near the entrance. Twin Pillars are one of the oldest and most widely-recognized Masonic symbols, and are a historical reference to the pillars Jachin and Boz, constructed for King Solomon's temple in 832 BCE.

The past 20 years have brought untold growth and change to the space that for over 70 years served just a single purpose. The Masonic Building has played host to a multitude of venues over the last two decades, including two pubs-The Blarney Stone Pub in the late 90's and Conan's Pub in the early 2000's, The Arista Ballroom and Benny's Comedy Club, The Lucky Strike Restaurant, an art gallery, and a record shop, Chaos Existence. Though the Hawthorne Masonic Building's infancy found its halls filled with secretive meetings and the sound of tight-lipped greetings, the building's past 20 years have transformed it into a beacon of the Portland artistic community. In 2005, The Hawthorne Theatre and the Hawthorne Theatre Lounge officially opened their doors and became part of this buildings rich historic tapestry.

The present day Hawthorne Theatre is one of the few places left in an ever-changing Portland to see all-ages shows, and hosts everything from metal shows to dance nights, from comedians to art shows, and everything in between. The size of the Theatre is a big draw for up-and-coming acts on the edge of breaking out, as well as legacy acts that enjoy playing a more intimate venue for die-hard fans. The interior of the Theatre holds a large stage, an underage section toward the front and a 21+ section in the back with a bar, and a large balcony that provides excellent views of the stage.

The grandeur of 100 years ago is most noticeable in the Lounge, which features lush purple & gold wallpaper, floor to ceiling windows draped in velvet curtains, and Masonic imagery visible on the wall behind the bar. The lounge is a 21 and over space that hosts local bands, up-and-coming acts, burlesque shows, and spoken word nights.

The contrast between contemporary musical acts playing in a building steeped in history is part of what makes this venue so unique. In a city that, in the last few years, has been plagued by the demolition of old buildings for the construction of high priced luxury flats, the Hawthorne feels distinctly Old Portland.

Home

Events

Lounge

About

Menu

Menu